

Developers

Urban Sun Investments, Inc. is open to mutually beneficial partnerships and collaborations with other real estate developers. Small to medium-sized developers embarking on the path of sustainable development will find our services most beneficial.

We offer our services in the following capacities:

- Co-investment - Through our network of individual investors, financial institutions, and investment funds, we can assist with raising funds for projects that are aligned with our efforts of sustainable real estate development.
- Co-development - We will enter into co-developer partnerships with select developers that need our expertise to fill in their own gaps.
- Consulting - We offer consulting services to select projects that are aligned with our efforts in sustainable real estate development.
